Social, Cultural, and Historical Contexts in Fitzgerald and Hemingway from Tables of Contents for F. Scott Fitzgerald in Context (2013)

F. Scott Fitzgerald in Context
Edited by: Bryant Mangum, Virginia Commonwealth University

Chronology Gretchen Comba

Part I. Life and Works (1896–Present):
1. Biography Cathy Barks
2. Interpreting Fitzgerald's ledger James L. W. West, III
3. Letters Bryant Mangum
4. Literary style Kirk Curnutt
5. Literary influences William Blazek
6. Intellectual influences Ronald Berman
7. Contemporary critical reception Jackson R. Bryer
8. The Fitzgerald revival Ruth Prigozy

Part II. An Author's Formation (1896–1920):
9. Buffalo and Syracuse, New York Joel Kabot
10. St Paul, Minnesota, St Paul Academy, and St Paul Academy now and then Deborah Davis Schlacks
13. World War I James H. Meredith
14. Marriage to Zelda Sayre Linda Wagner-Martin
15. Fitzgerald's southern narrative: the Tarleton, Georgia stories Bryant Mangum

Part III. Jazz Age Literary and Artistic Movements (1918–29):
16. American literary realism James Nagel
17. Naturalism and high modernism Michael Nowlin
18. Avant-garde trends Linda Patterson Miller

Part IV. Historical and Social Contexts in the Jazz Age (1918–29):
19. Prohibition Linda De Roche
20. Class structure Peter Hays
21. Ethnic stereotyping Suzanne del Gizzo
22. Gender in the Jazz Age Heidi M. Kunz
23. Post-war flappers Kate Drowne
24. Youth culture Jarom McDonald
25. American expatriates in France Elisabeth Bouzonviller

Part V. Popular and Material Culture in the Jazz Age (1918–29):
26. Popular literary tastes Philip McGowan
27. Magazines Robert Beuka
28. Broadway melodies Anthony J. Berret
29. Stage and screen entertainment Walter Raubicheck and Steven Goldleaf
30. Consumer culture and advertising Lauren Rule Maxwell
31. Fashion Doni M. Wilson
32. Transportation Deborah Clarke
33. Parties Christopher Ames
34. Architecture and design Bonnie Shannon McMullen

Part VI. The Depression Era (1929–40):
35. The Crash and the aftermath Richard Godden
36. The Great Depression Michael K. Glenday
37. The writer in Hollywood Richard Fine
38. The Golden Age of Hollywood Laura Rattray
39. Hollywood and the gossip columnists Gail D. Sinclair
40. Heroes and Hollywood Robert Sklar